

Know who'd make a great troop leader?

Yes, you!

Did you know all it takes to be a great Girl Scout leader is to be organized, kind, and welcoming? Girls in your community are craving connection, and you can be the one who brings people together by teaming up with a friend or neighbor to start a Girl Scout troop. We'll provide you with training, meeting plans, and a network of support. The time commitment is less than you might think. Most troops meet once a month during the school year.

New leaders (and their girl) can join for FREE*

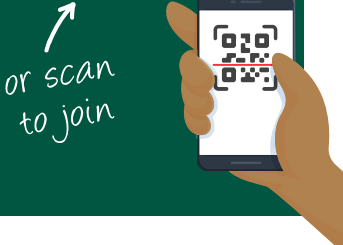

If you sign up to lead a new troop now, your membership is free and so is the membership for a girl in your life, both valid until September 30, 2022 ($70 value). Plus, you'll get the chance to join a new troop leader cohort where you'll get to learn alongside other new leaders as you train and prepare to start your troop in the fall.

 Promotional offer valid April 1, 2021–July 31, 2021.*

New troop leader cohorts start soon—join today!
